SCHEDULED TOPICS

a. Epping Education Association CBA 23 - 25

Ben Leavitt thanked everyone for all their hard work including Superintendent Furbush and Christine Vayda, Nicole Argraves, Sean Meager, and Deb Dyer. Over 1,000 hours was spent working on the process and crafting the agreement between the Teacher's Association and School Board.

Superintendent Furbush thanked the teams involved in the long, but important process of the CBA. Superintendent Furbush and Christine Vayda presented a powerpoint presentation 2023 -2025 Teacher's CBA. Superintendent Furbush touched on several different changes to the CBA.

Robin O'Day would like the CBA available for the public to access or directed to the school website to review. Important to keep the public informed and the public understand that the school district needs stability to be the best school district we can be. Julie Knight echoed what Robin said and agreed the salary scale is very fair.

Vice Chair Ben Leavitt made a motion to accept the 23- 24, 24- 25 Teacher's Agreement. Seconded by Robin O'Day. VOTE: 4-0. 1 Absent. Motion carries
